2. Elek:

A border guard post is located in a requisitioned building approximately 300 meters east from the church on the road to Rumania. (See sketch in "Appendix B.") The post consists of approximately 25 men, commanded by 2 NCO's. The personnel have green cap-bands.

3. Kétegyháza:

A permanent field fortification is located approximately one mile west of Kétegyháza in the direction of Mezőgyeháza. (See sketch in "Appendix C.") The fortification was built in 1954, and consists of a semi-circular trench approximately seven feet deep, approximately 20 inches above ground, and covered with earth and grass. It is constructed of reinforced concrete. The fortification is approximately 650 feet long, with entrances on the sides and in the rear. Communication trenches lead to the entrances. The installation is not guarded, but is occasionally used by troops from the neighboring training grounds located south of Békéscsaba.

4. Lókosháza:

An AVH (secret police) barracks are situated north of the Lókosháza railroad station, and consists of an old one-story building, painted green. (See sketch in "Appendix D.") The barracks houses an AVH unit consisting of three or four officers and approximately 20 men with blue cap-bands.
